The Howard had a very large and valuable doubtful if the boat does not share a similar fate, owing to the depth her stern is now under water and the very unfavorable position in which she is lying. The loss, therefore, it is thought, probably will not fall short of $125,-000, and will exceed that amount. The Howard had only five passengers, who were taken off' and brought to this city, as also a portion of her crew, by the steamer Baltic, bound np, which passed the wreck shortly after the occurrence. From the Wabash Express, Terre llaute: Hogs-Dec. 6.-To-day the hog trade is rather dull, and prices are rather lower. Good logs were bought for $5 75, and but little disposition on the part of buyers to make auy ousiderable contracts, even at that price. We are inclined to think that lower prices will rule for the future, as most of our packers feel that they have left themselves too small a margin profits. The season will probably be close by Christmas, if not before. From the Evansville Journal, of the 9th: We are told by a friend from New Harmony that the number of hogs killed at that point this season, will not be one-third the number laughtered there last year. Less than 500 hogs have yet crossed the Wabash from Illinois to the point, where it is usual to receive many thousands before this period.

"CURIOSITY," THAT TOE .- A section of a toe of the great Pizarro was lately exhibited in Bangor, Maine. It seems that the mate of the "Bark Damon," while in Lima, obtained, with two of his friends, access to the vaults of the great Cathedral of Lima, where Pizarro was embalmed. "By liberally feeing the guide, they were permitted to take away one of his toes. Now, the probabilities are, that those came men (if they had been in Louisvile) might, with far less risk, and a great deal less money," obtained of J. M. CONGRESSIONAL. Friday's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10 .- SENATE-A report was received from the Secretary of the Interior covering an account of the expenditures for the District of Columbia, and a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury inclosing his accounts; these documents were laid on the table. On motion, Monday was fixed upon for the appointment of the Stauding Committees. A considerable routine of business was transacted, under which the Senate, at half-past twelve, adjourned over till Monday. No additional Senators were present to-day. House.—Mr. Boyce, of South Carolina, asked leave to introduce a resolution to admit Lieut. Mowry to the floor of the House, as delegate from Arizona.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, objected, saying that Arizona was a part of the Territory of New Mexico, and that he could not see any use of admitting two delegates from one Territory.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Judge Watrons impeachment case.

Mr. Billinghurst, of Wisconsin, was in favor of the impeachment. He said that the charges CHIEF, with the latest improvements, at the price of the impeachment. He said that the charges price of FIETY DOLLARS. The price of the made against Judge Watrons were, that the dard Machines has been greatly reduced. Judge had entered into a corrupt conspiracy for the unlawful institution in his court of suits, in which he was personally interested, for the purpose of having them removed beyond the ver dict of a local Texas jury; had entered into a conspiracy to deprive individuals of their lands by means of forged papers; had presided at the trial of cases in which he was personally interested, though knowing that he was thereby squalified from so doing; and that he had permitted to pass, without rebuke, repeated ilegal acts of officers of his court. Mr. Billing. hurst contended that all these charges were sus-ained by the evidence. Mr. Ready said that no clamor nor outside pressure could induce him to east a stain on the character of Judge Watrous, by sending him to the Senate for trial, unless he was satisfied that the result would establish his guilt.

Mr. Davis, of Md., inquired whether there named evening, assisted by the following ladies engaged in a series of speculations in Texas, the eases connected with which were to be decided in his court? Mr. Reading replied that there was not a syllable of testimony to show that Watrous ever engaged to buy more than one tract of land at any time, the principal of which not being paid, is proof that the Judge is a poor man, and was ed into the purchase as a matter of favor to persons in Alabama, who had the capital. He urged that, from the evidence, there was nothng to show corruption or malleasance in office. Adjourned. Washington, Dec. 10 .- A recently-prepared official document calculates the entire amount of public and private appropriations, exclusive of salaries for public officers, for the District of Columbia, from the time the government located in Washington to the 30th of June ast, at nearly $25,000,000, and the assessed value of the government reservations formed by the intersections of streets and avenues at upwards of $13,500,000; the cost of public uildings-including furniture, stationary, and paintings—at nearly $15,000,000—the capitol costing over $6,000,000. The private property of the District is assessed at $35,900,000. Four or five more speeches are to be made in the House of Representatives, on the Watrous impeachment ease. Washington, Dec. 10.—The Interior Department has awarded the following contracts: To Messra. Whitney, Gallope, Blies & Co., of Bos.

OTERE DAYS.

SY J. A. HARRIS. A dream of the past, confused and dim, Last night was round my heart; And I saw again life's varied scenes All, one by one, depart. But through them all, still bright and clear.

The star of hope, in its loft; at here, Shone on through the shadowy unist of years, 'Till it made bright rainbows o'er our teass. In the midulght dream, once more I saw

The felends of early days-Friends that I I ved before I knew Life's varied, shadowy ways— Friends whose hearts were as leal, as true To me, as the sun to the far-off blue; And I loved this dream, confused and dim, As I love the notes of a half-heard by min.

Once more I heard the sighing wlud. As it s'ghed long, long ago, When It passed through the reliow leaves in fall, Musical, soft and low; And the raven, purched on the same dead limb, With glistoning eys and neck stretched slim,

Is the same I saw there, wild and coy. In the days when I was a wayward boy It seems a long and a weary path

To trend the walks of life; To pass through the shade i vales of earth, With their pleasures, pains and strife. But old age comes -we then look back To the past, life's sunny and shady track, And dreams like these cast as sweet a spell

As the music of waves in an ocean shell.

There are none that have never felt the touck Of sorrow's dark hued wing.

And there are none, but in dark hours Will to some fond hope cling;

The absolute demands for men in the various posts, stations, &c., as well as for what might be termed the police operations of the army, left only thirteen regiments for actual service in the field. And upon this small force, service in the field. And upon this small force, numbering little over 11,000 men, devolved the arduous duty of prosecuting all the Indian wars, which have extended this year from the British possessions on the Pacific to the border.

Abstract of the Report of the Secretary of War.

The authorized strength of the army, as posted, is 18,165, but the actual strength on July was 17,498. These troops compose the whole numerical force of our ermy, distributed through the States and Territories of the entire confederacy, manning all the fortifications occupied by troops, holding all posts now garrisoned, defending all our extended frontiers, and protecting, as far as possible, the different routes extending across the continent, from the Missiscippi valley to our possessions on the Pacific.
